INDIANAPOLIS MAN CHARGED WITH POSSESSION OF METHAMPHETAMINE

PRESS RELEASE

INDIANAPOLIS - Anthony T. Lewis, 30, Indianapolis, was charged late yesterday with possession with intent to distribute more than 50 grams of methamphetamine, announced Timothy M. Morrison, U.S. Attorney, Southern District of Indiana, following an investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration.

Lewis was arrested on June 18, 2010, by law enforcement officers after he sold methamphetamine near the War Memorial in Indianapolis.

According to Assistant U.S. Attorney Melanie C. Conour, who is prosecuting the case for the government, Lewis faces a maximum of life imprisonment and a $8,000,000 fine. An initial hearing will be scheduled for in the near future before a U.S. Magistrate Judge.

An indictment is only a charge and is not evidence of guilt. A defendant is presumed innocent and is entitled to a fair trial at which the government must prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
